BERMUDA RACE SIX FLEET YACHTS GET AWAY FROM MAR- BLEHEAD IN RUN TO BERMUDA.

MARBLEHEAD, June 3.—To the booming of cannon and the cheers of the crowd gathered to see the start, the six sailing yachts entered in the great ocean race from Marblehead to Bermuda were sent away on their long journey shortly after 11 o'clock today. Six yachts crossed the line. They were timed at as follows:

CLASS B.
Dervish, 11:10:45 15 30.00
Esperanza 11:10:45 15 30.00
Zurah 11:10:45 15 30.00
CLASS C.
Venona 11:11:45 15 30.00
Marchioness 11:12:25 15 30.00
Edith Anna 11:22:25 15 30.00
Edith Anna 11:22:25 15 30.00
A large fleet of motor boats and out-rigger sailing yachts went out to Marblehead Rock, where the race was started,
and there was a big crowd on the shore at Marblehead Neck to watch the start.
The tugboat Fulton, having the commodore and his staff on board, got off early in the morning for the start.

In Spinking Race.
There was a seven-mile southeast breeze blowing when the six boats made ready to start the preparatory signal, but there were indications that the wind would increase as the day wore on. In fact, it did so before the yachts had traveled far toward Cape Cod, which they needed for the wind being the light breeze, made the first part of the journey a race.
When the starting gun fired at 11:15 for the Class B yachts, Commodore Henry A.
Moss, who sailed the Dervish, was the first to start. He crossed the line at 11:10:45, before the smoke of the gun had been dissipated. The Dervish was followed by the Esperanza, then the Zurah, then the Marchioness, then the Venona, and last of all, the Edith Anna, which was the slowest of the fleet.

DERVISH LEADING.
Five minutes later came the signal for the Class C boats to start. The Venona jockeyed into the windward position, and crossed at 11:11:45. The Marchioness crossed at 11:12:25, and the Commodore at 11:22:25.

'CALLED FEWER'
IN PHONE BOOK;
SUES COMPANY
Benedict Adelson, a Jeweler of No. 1113
Washington street, has brought suit against the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company for $2,000 damages because of a list which appears in the telephone directory issued by the defendant company.
He alleges that in January, 1907, in the directory published by the defendant company, he was listed as a Jeweler, and that people were the worse.
"Adelson v. Dornand, Jeweler, 1113 Washington street."

56-HOUR LEAV-
S PASSED TO THURSDAY
The bill limiting the hours of labor of women and children in textile factories in Massachusetts to 56½ hours a week was passed in a record time by the House
Senate today without roll call or debate.
It is passed by both branches of the Legislature and finally becomes law it will go into effect on January 1, 1910.

DRAPER NAMES GILSELA BOARD; BECK LEFT OFF

Mayor of City Ignored; McClintock Made Head of Commission.

Acting Governor Draper opened a decided surprise at the State House today, when, in appointing the five members of the commission which is to govern Chicago, he named the five members of the commission, but he failed to name Mayor Beck. He did, however, name the widow of the citizens of the city who are in living form three out of the five members, though an amendment with this provision was beaten in passing the bill.

The members appointed, the Executive Council, were: William E. McClintock of Boston, present chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Commission, term expires January, 1913; Allen E. Briggs of Boston, term expires January, 1911;
George F. Johnson of Chelsea, term expires January, 1910; Mark Winthrop of Boston, term expires January, 1913; A. C.
Barber of Boston, term expires January, 1910.

The omission of Mayor Beck's name from the list is considered a slight of the building and business interests of Chelsea for the politicians. The omission has been attributed to the fact that Beck's appointment would have been contested by the city's business interests, which would have been a discredit to the city.

Mayor Beck is principal of the highway department. He is a director of the Chelsea Trust Co., and is also a director of the Chelsea Trust Co., and is also a director of the Chelsea Trust Co.

President Near Death, but Escapes With Only Slight Bruises—"Breaking In" a Green Colt.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—It was learned to-day that President Roosevelt had a very narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon.

A young horse that he was trying for Sergeant McDermott, his orderly, reared and fell backward with him from the top of the bank of Rock Creek. But for the fact that the President threw himself to the side of the animal as it fell, he would have been killed or terribly crushed.

As it was he received a number of bruises and to-day he feels rather lame "in spots."

WIFE WAS WITH HIM.
After sending out of the creek, the President and his orderly caught the right
horse, the executive mounted him again and rode him for an hour and a half before returning to the White House.
The President is not certain how he landed in the water, whether by his lack of stealth, or by the horse's lack of control.

President LIKES HIM.
For the fact that there were two carriage and an automobile within a few yards of the President when he took his fall, the President is not certain
how he landed in the water.

ARCHBISHOP OFFICIATES AT MARRIAGE

Dr. John T. Bottomley and Miss May Agnes Kenney Wed at Cathedral.

Fully 4,000 people thronged this Cathedral today to witness the nuptials of Miss May Agnes Kenney of No. 214 Fowler street, Roxbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kenney, and Dr. John T. Bottomley of No. 130 Union street, and Harvard, class 1904. Mr. Kenney is the president of the Federal Trust Company.

Most Reverend William H. O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, performed the marriage ceremony. The church ceremony itself was of the most simple character in comparison with its setting, as the mass was a rare one.

Many Clergymen Attended. Archbishop O'Connell was assisted by the Rev. William Casey, S. J., of St. Francis Xavier Church, Westmore street, New York, and the Rev. James A. Ryan, vicar general of the Boston diocese, who acted as the officiating priest. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The bride was a tall, well-built woman, with dark hair, and was dressed in a gown of white satin, simple and elegant. She was accompanied by her father, Mr. James W. Kenney, and her mother, Mrs. James W. Kenney.

The groom was a tall, well-built man, with dark hair, and was dressed in a suit of dark cloth. He was accompanied by his father, Dr. John T. Bottomley, and his mother, Mrs. John T. Bottomley.

The ceremony was performed in the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, 130 Union street, Boston. The church was filled with people, and the atmosphere was one of solemnity and joy.

FUNERAL OF JOHN H. M'LOID

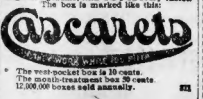

Funeral services for John H. M'Loide, who died at the City Hospital, Monday, June 1, at the age of 72, will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow at the funeral home of William H. Bulger, undertaking, 100 North Street. The deceased was a native of Ireland and was a member of the St. John's Church. He was a well-known figure in the community and was loved by many.

Some people say, "Cascarets are a nuisance. I need a strong physio."

The trouble is this: They have taken harsh physic until their bowels are caloused. Nature has caused the bowel linings to harden—to resist the attacks of harsh pills.

Then one Cascaret a day is enough; and a little later you need none.

For Cascarets cure the bowels. They bring back the natural action. They heal what physics destroy. No harsh laxative can be used without injury, and none is ever necessary. Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C. C. on every tablet. The box is marked like this:
